

REFUSE TO BE A VICTIM[®]

A Crime Prevention And Personal
Safety Program From The National Rifle Association Of America

What Is Refuse To Be A Victim[®] ?

A nationally recognized crime prevention and personal safety program designed to provide men and women with information that assists in the development of their own personal safety strategies

Program History

- Developed by the National Rifle Association in 1993 for women
- In 1997, the program became co-ed
- One of the NRA's many General Operations programs designed to educate, inform, and foster safety

What This Seminar Covers

- Psychology of a criminal mind
- Mental preparedness
- Home security
- Physical Security
- Automobile security
- Travel security
- Technology security
- Personal security
- In the Workplace
- Parents and children: College students
- Seniors and physical disabilities

Contact Me to Set Up a Seminar

- For more information or to contact me to set up a seminar for your group:
 - bill@gonzosgarage.net